

Global style statement – Crest of the wave surfing

Colour palette

The colours are obviously inspired by the sea. But with a desire to get a black and a white for text colours and an attempt to match the red dust colours with which Australia is often associated

Below is a mock showing basic background colours and text colours I shall now mockup with sample text and images

This shows the basic layout of a page showing text and images in rough position.
